TRANSPORTATION

Getting There

By Air

The state-of-the-art Kuala Lumpur International Airport (KLIA) is the main gateway into the country. It is situated in Sepang, about 55km from Kuala Lumpur. Over 40 international airlines fly into the country. Malaysia's national carrier is Malaysia Airlines which spans about six continents. Malaysia Airlines is complemented by AirAsia, the budget carrier, which operates from the Low Cost Carrier Terminal or LCCT. It is situated about 20km from the KLIA Main Terminal Building.

From the airport to the city

Upon arrival in KLIA, visitors can board the high-speed KLIA Ekspres train for a 28-minute non-stop journey to KL Sentral Station (the city's main transportation hub). From KL Sentral, taxis that operate using a coupon system are easily available for transfers to hotels. The Airport Limo taxi is a convenient alternative that provides pick-up and transfer services from the airport to the hotels. These taxis operate using a prepaid coupon system. A cheaper mode of transport is the Airport Coach service which connects KLIA to KL Sentral.

Visitors from LCCT to KL Sentral can take the KLIA Transit train service, which involves a packaged bus transfer. The most popular mode of transport from LCCT to KL Sentral is the non-stop Skybus or Aerobus service. The journey takes about 1½ hours or more, depending on traffic. Tickets can be purchased online or at the counters.

By Sea

Kuala Lumpur is easily accessible from Port Klang, Malaysia's largest and busiest port. It is situated about 50km from the city. The Star Cruises Terminal is situated at Westport.
